

Copyright:

There may be a copyright form as issued by County Archives. Copyright law is complicated and different authorities have put slightly different operating methods in place which can be discussed if relevant. Should you wish to publish – either on the web, in a talk, or in printed form – any document it is essential to discuss this with an archives first and I am pleased to be able to advise appropriately on this should it be necessary.

17/05/19