

Final Report:

This can be in many forms from a straightforward list of records be it parish register entries, or other document entries. It could be a transcription of a complicated document that needs palaeographic skills to read and understand.

Family Trees are produced using desk top publishing software, and family history reports are produced using this software too. Unless requested as a printed document for which there would be a charge, all are sent as PDF copies.